"You have the best line of Suits and Overcoats, at the lowest prices in Washington"

It was simply the comment of a man who had just purchased a Suit and Overcoat from us. He said that in the past he had been a manufacturer of woolens, and certainly knew qualities. Also that he had visited nearly all the clothing shops in Washington, because he was interested.

That tells the story of our sale. If you want the highest-grade clothing-at prices that are really LOW-come here! The stocks are large; the variety is extensive. We can fit any man, and give him just such style as he has in mind.
